

Monopoly power is danerous! The media is already a mess, we need to keep a balance and to have some real jounalism on the air. We need many media entities in order to provide balance, honestinformation so citizens can for their opinions without being force-feed the administrations line.